

Top 5 Reasons to Meet with a Career Peer Advisor

1. A Student's Perspective

As a Career Peer Advisor, we utilize the very services that we promote in our sessions. We too are job hunting, writing resumes, and meeting with employers. We can offer you advice based on our own personal experiences as students in the labour market.

2. Diverse Experiences to Share

We all come from diverse backgrounds. Not only does the team consists of peers from different option choices, but we also have differing campus involvement and work experiences. Whether you have a question about working for one of the Big 4 or getting involved on campus, we have a peer that can point you in the right direction.

3. Help Moving Forward

Each peer has been in your shoes and have faced similar trials as you. If you're feeling stuck at school, we're here to chat. We are approachable, friendly, and genuinely interested in providing you with the best guidance possible.

4. Trained by BCC Career Coaches

We all have been trained by the Business Career Centre career coaches on many aspects of the job search. In addition, we are well acquainted with the different programs within UBC Sauder. If you want a second pair of eyes on your application, we're here to help! If you want to chat about our experiences in different programs such as SauderGo or the Co-op Program, we can help you with that as well.

We can help you with the following topics:

- a. Selecting academic option/track
