What is the Global SCLM option?

The Global Supply Chain and Logistics Management option is a specialized option and joint exchange program between the Sauder School of Business, Copenhagen Business School (CBS) and Chinese University of Hong Kong in Shenzhen (CUHKSZ).

Students from the three institutions study together as a cohort for three terms and take common courses in global supply chain and logistics management.

The curriculum has been designed to develop conceptual thinking, communication skills, creativity, and the ability to undertake analysis with the relevant analytical tools. Practical application will allow students to generate ideas that advance the practice of global supply chain and logistics management.
Global SCLM

Why Sauder/CBS/CUHK(SZ)?

Strategic partnership between the three institutions
Common interest in global logistics and supply chain management
Geographic location of cities in key regions of the world
Similar academic programs and academic culture
Reputation and quality of institutions
Copenhagen Business School (CBS)

Copenhagen Business School was established in 1917. With close to 22,000 students and 2,200 faculty and staff, CBS is one of the largest business schools in Europe and one of the 8 Danish universities

Accredited by EQUIS, AMBA and AACSB. CBS has thus acquired 'The Triple Crown', an acknowledgement only shared by only 77 business schools worldwide

CBS offers world-class research-based degree programmes at undergraduate, graduate and PhD levels as well as executive and other post experience programmes

CBS is primarily located in four modern buildings in Frederiksberg, close to the heart of Copenhagen

Denmark is the EU’s 11th largest economy and the world’s 12th most competitive economy
Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shenzhen CUHK (SZ)

As a young and vibrant university, CUHK (SZ) is committed to creating new knowledge with innovative thinking, while preserving and promoting traditional Chinese culture.

Management of CUHK (SZ) is modeled on the system developed over the years of experience of Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK).

Shenzhen is a major city in the south of Southern China’s Guangdong Province, situated immediately north of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. The area became China’s first—and one of the most successful—Special Economic Zones.

Shenzhen continues to be one of the fastest growing cities in the world. In 2014, Shenzhen’s GDP totaled $260.48 billion and it’s economic output is ranked fourth among the 659 Chinese cities (behind Beijing, Shanghai and Guangzhou). Shenzhen’s Vibrant economy made possible by rapid foreign investments, modernizing industrial infrastructure, and a fair market order.
Program Benefits

Unique and enriched educational opportunity
Cultivate personal, professional and academic success
International exposure
Cohort of up to 45 students
Access to multiple business career centres
Increased demand for graduates in supply chain and logistics management
Research assistant opportunity
Sample Site Visits & Activities

Copenhagen

• City tour
• Case competition
• Hamburg study trip; Kuhne Logistics University, Port of Hamburg, Container Terminal excursion
• Airbus, NKG Kala GmbH, Kuhne+Nagel, Blue Water Shipping
Sample Site Visits & Activities

Shenzhen

• Hakka Village tour
• Study trip to Hong Kong
• Company visits: Tencent, Foxconn, Yantian International Container Terminals
Sample Site Visits & Activities

Vancouver

- Social activities
- Company visits: Seaspan, YVR, London Drugs
- 2-day retreat, emotional intelligence workshop
- Graduation / closing ceremony
Program Structure (as of 2018/19 Term 2 and beyond)

Year 1 and 2 at UBC

Term 1 of year 3 at Copenhagen Business School (cohorts together)

Term 2 of year 3 at UBC (cohorts together)

Term 1 of year 4 at Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shenzhen (cohorts together)

Term 2 of year 4 at UBC
Global SCLM

Curriculum

Meet the regular requirements of the BCom program while studying at three institutions.

Two option courses taken at each school

- Logistics Clusters
- Supply Chain Risk Management
- Management of Innovation in China
- Current and Regional Issues in Supply Chain & Logistics Management
- Data Visualization and Business Analytics
- Quantitative Policy Analysis

Take other COMM requirements and electives, in addition to option courses while abroad

Typically take 15 credits per term
Global SCLM

Global SCLM & Exchange

Spend two semesters on exchange

Maintain status at UBC while away; eligible for scholarships and financial assistance

Pay tuition to UBC (15 credits per term)

$415 Go Global application fee

Go Global International Learning Award; most eligible students leave with $1000 per exchange term

Eligibility: 70% GPA in 18W term 1, full-time status in good standing, completion of COMM 204 prior to departure
Costs

Tuition is paid to UBC. Also need to consider:

Airfare
Accommodation
Personal expenses (food, entertainment, travel, etc.)

Cost for a term in Copenhagen will be similar to Vancouver, while in Shenzhen will be less expensive
Option application

Ideal candidates will have the following qualifications:

• Capability of approaching an international experience
• Interest in global perspectives and business practices
• Interest in global supply chain and logistics management
• Demonstrated leadership potential
• Ability to work in teams
• Extra-curricular involvement and diverse range of interests
Option application

Application posted on option website. Due January 7, 2019

Shortlisted applicants will be contacted to submit a video interview to demonstrate:

- Interest and motivation for option/program
  - Why do you want to be part of the option?
- Extra-curricular involvement and leadership
  - What are you involved in outside of your classes?
- Motivation for international experience
  - What do you hope to gain from studying abroad?
Timelines

- January 7: option application deadline
- Mid-January: selection notification
- January 17: UBC Go Global exchange application deadline
- March: pre-departure sessions
- CBS exchange application due in May
More Information

Global SCLM website on BCom option website
Speak to current students
Make an appointment to see Ann in the UGO
UBC Go Global website for information re CBS and CUHK (SZ)
CUHK (SZ) and CBS websites
QUESTIONS?