¹ You may take ECON 301 and ECON 303 (both must be completed) instead of COMM 295 to fulfill this requirement. Three of the six credits will apply to your non-Commerce electives requirement.

² See electives page for requirements and restrictions. Depending on your option, 45-48 elective credits must be completed prior to graduation. Upon approval, HKU Common Core, Major courses, and select other courses can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

Continuation in the BCom program

A winter session average of $\geq 60\%$ based on all courses attempted from September to April is required to continue in the program at all year levels. This is a weighted average, taking course credit values into consideration, and does include any failing grades.

If your winter session average falls below 60%, you will be considered to have failed the year and will be required to discontinue your studies at UBC for a period of at least one year. Decimals are not rounded (i.e., a winter session average of 59.9% would be a failed year). Courses taken during the summer session (May to August) are not included in the winter session average.

Promotion to Year 3

To be promoted to Year 3, you must have completed 48 credits including all Year 1 requirements—including COMM 290, COMM 291, COMM 292, ECON 101, ECON 102, MATH 104 and WRDS 150—as well as at least four³ of COMM 203, COMM 204, COMM 205, COMM 293, COMM 294, COMM 295, COMM 296, COMM 298.

³ While a minimum of four of COMM 203, COMM 204, COMM 205, COMM 293, COMM 294, COMM 295, COMM 296, COMM 298 are required for promotion to Year 3, all eight courses must be completed to fulfill BCom degree requirements.

⁶ See electives page for requirements and restrictions. Depending on your option, 45-48 elective credits must be completed prior to graduation. Upon approval, HKU Common Core, Major courses, and select other courses can be used to fulfill elective requirements.

Continuation in the BCom program

A winter session average of $\geq 60\%$ based on all courses attempted from September to April is required to continue in the program at all year levels. This is a weighted average, taking course credit values into consideration, and does include any failing grades. If you participate in a study abroad and exchange program during the winter session, grades earned on exchange will be included in the calculation.

If your winter session average falls below 60%, you will be considered to have failed the year and will be required to discontinue your studies at UBC for a period of at least one year. Decimals are not rounded (i.e., a winter session average of 59.9% would be a failed year). Courses taken during the summer session (May to August) are not included in the winter session average.

Year 4 at the University of Hong Kong

In addition to taking HKU BBA program requirements, you will fulfill your BCom capstone requirement by taking the equivalent of COMM 491 Strategic Management, along with any outstanding BCom option and elective requirements.

See the HKU website for year 4 program planning details.

Graduation

Once you have fulfilled your BCom degree requirements, it's time to apply to graduate.

Continuation in the BCom program

If you have not completed all of your requirements for graduation, you may still continue in the next winter session, remaining in Year 4, provided your winter session average is greater than or equal to 60% on all courses attempted from September to April. You must achieve the minimum 60% continuation requirement by the end of the current winter session in April. When planning your studies, keep in mind that you must complete all of your degree requirements within six years of entering the program to be conferred a Bachelor of Commerce from UBC.
